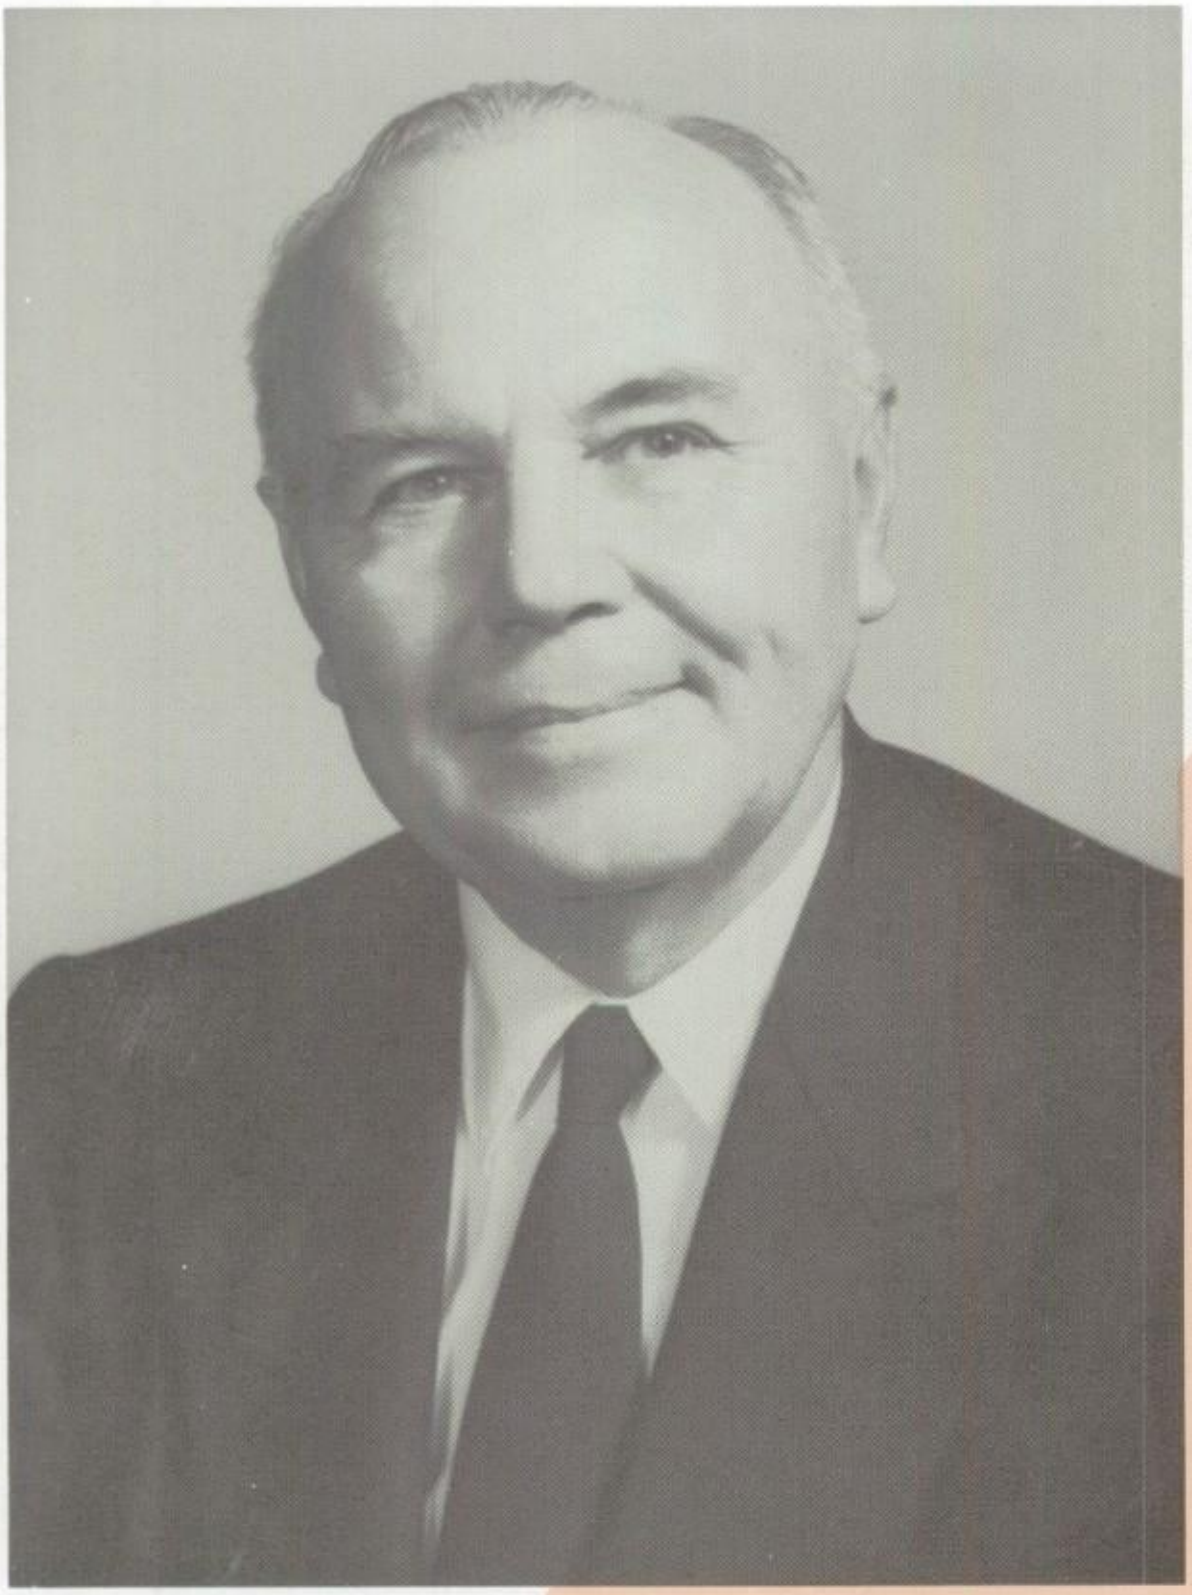
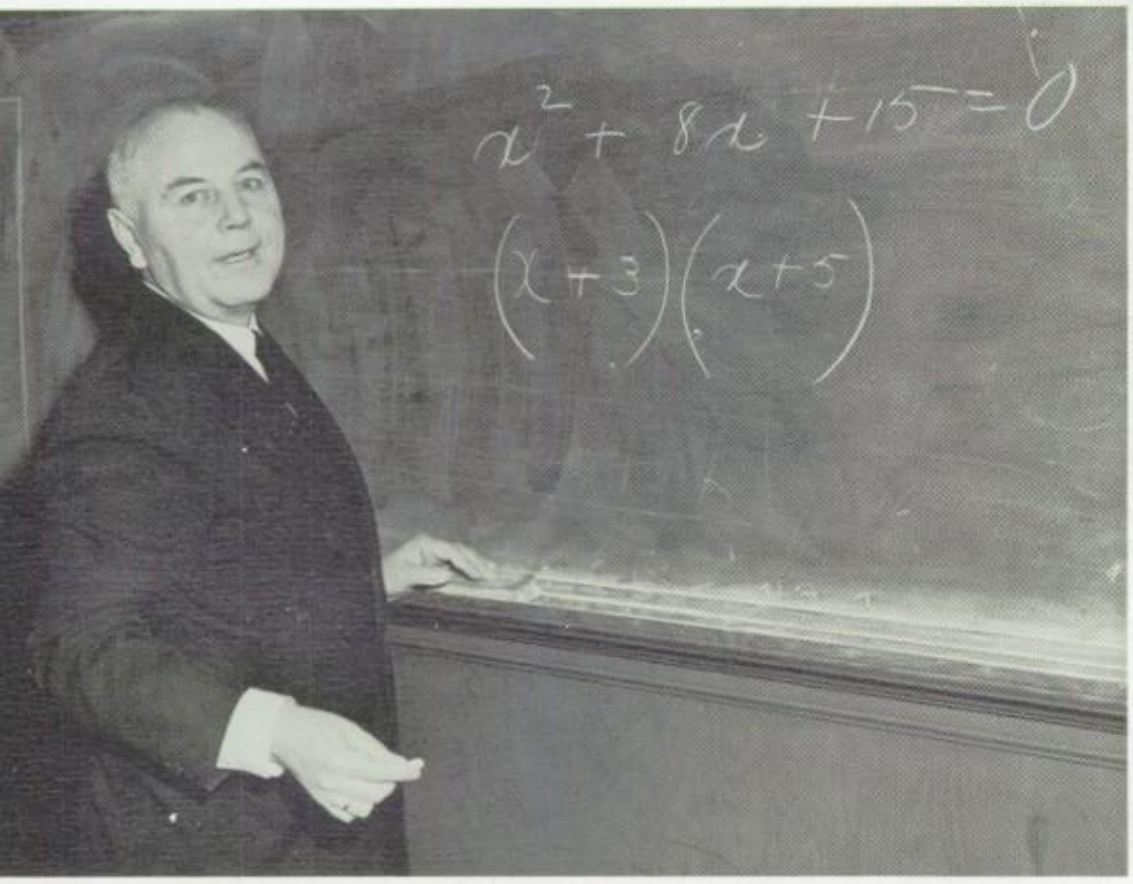
25th Anniversary



BROTHER CHARLES WEISS, S. M.

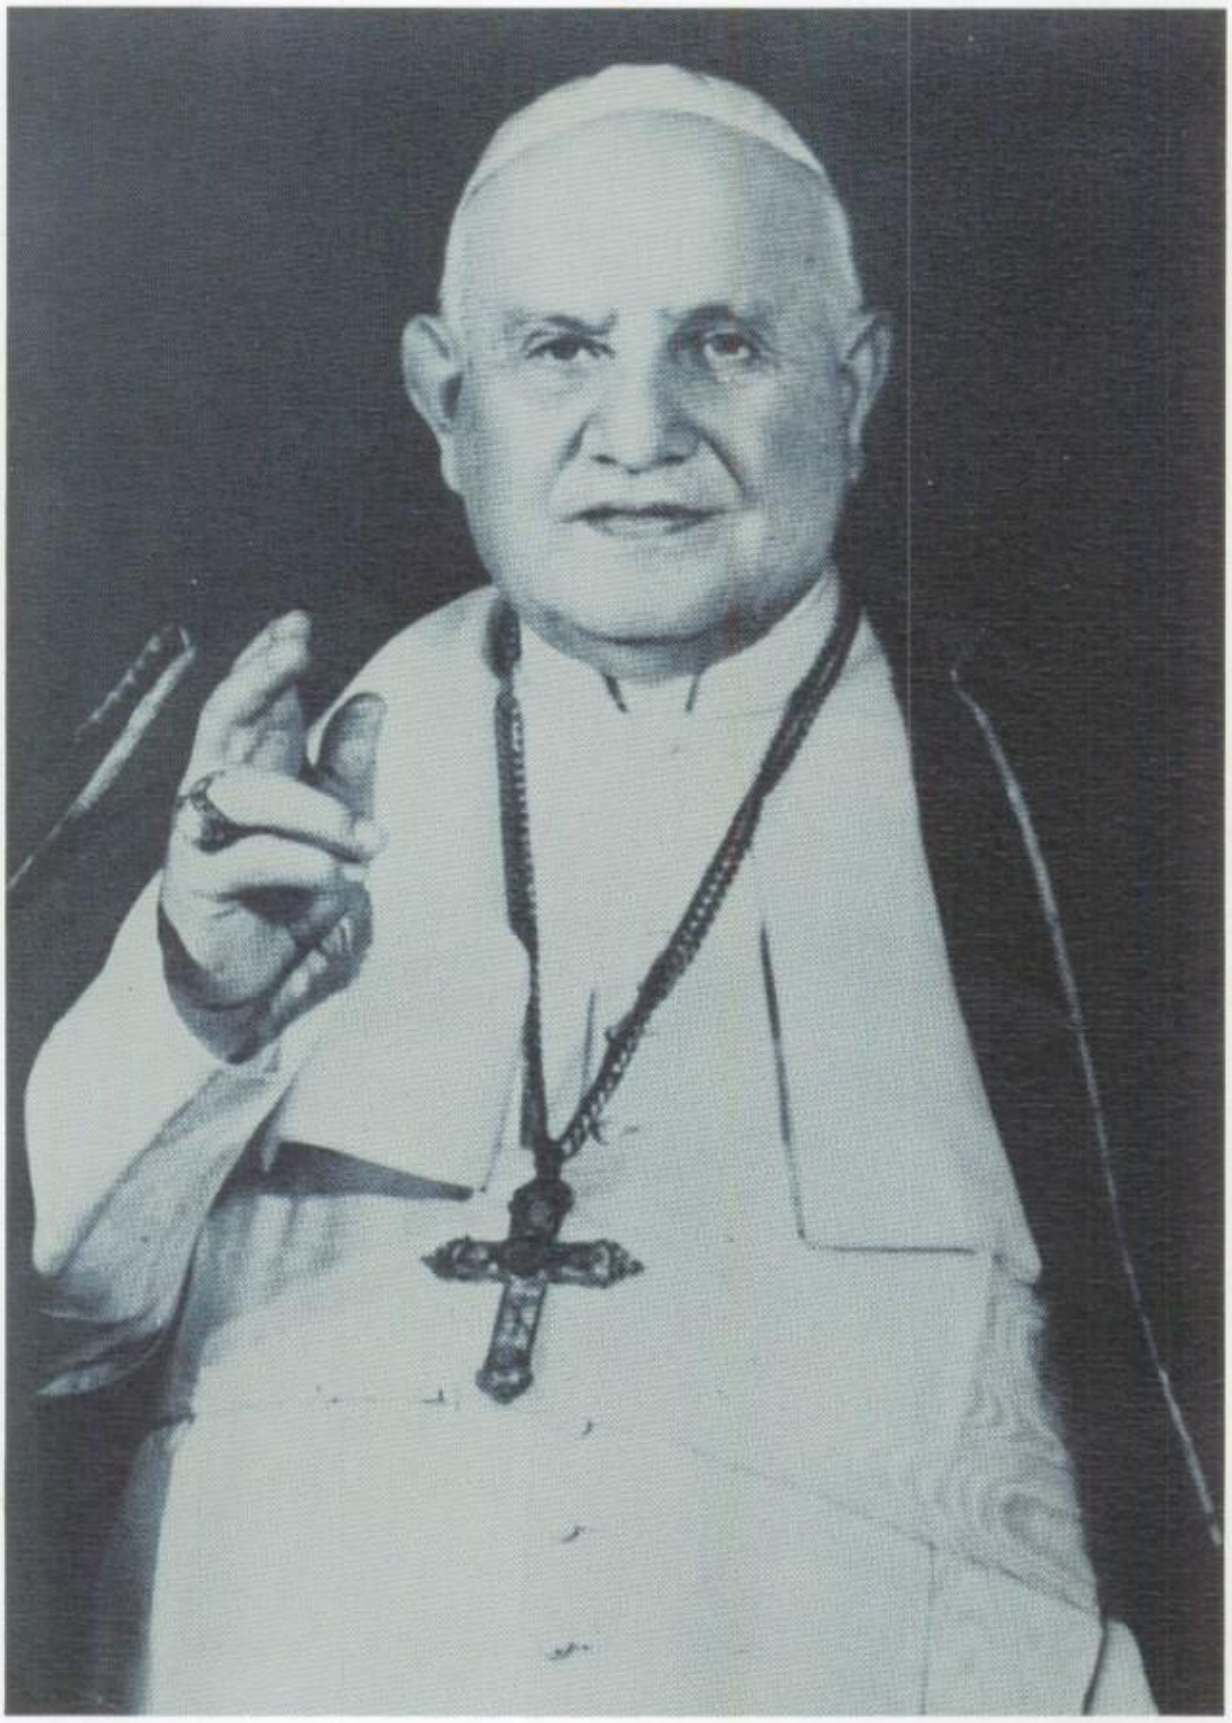
California is noted for its share of pioneers. Brother Charles Weiss, S.M. has a rightful claim of being a California pioneer. On August 26, 1935, he and Brother Matthew Betz, S.M., St. Joseph's first principal, opened the doors of the "old wing" to twenty-four sophomores and thirty-four freshmen. In 1942, Brother Charles was assigned to St. James High School in San Francisco and in 1947, he joined other Marianist Missionaries in their Hawaiian schools. Again, in 1956, Brother Charles returned to St. Joseph as teacher and athletic director. On the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of St. Joseph High School, we, the senior class of 1960, dedicate the 1960 POWERDIVE to our pioneer.

"Ad multos annos: Brother Charles, for your years of dedicated service as religious, teacher, and friend to the youth of Alameda."



Religious Educator

"The Lord has chosen New Wars." Under the aegis of Mary, the Religious Educator teaches the truth to youth and forms them into an imposing mass of Christian leaders who will cleanse their environment from the errors of the past and open to all men the opportunity to grow into the fullness of Christ.



His Holiness Pope John XXIII

These are times of great and sudden changes. These are times when mankind feels insecure in the realization that there are no longer frontiers in space, but only eternity. God has given us a man, a Holy Father, who understands these times. During his short pontificate, Pope John XXIII has directed the Church into new frontiers in order to secure mankind in the peace of Christ. Under his leadership, we, the graduates of Saint Joseph High School, are prepared to shoulder the responsibilities of dedicated Christians.

To the Faculty and Students of
St. Joseph's High School
Alameda, California

With genuine appreciation the Archdiocese of San Francisco salutes St. Joseph's High School on the occasion of its Silver Anniversary. During twenty-five productive years, Marianist priests and Brothers and lay instructors have given dedicated service to youth throughout the City and County of Alameda. May I take this opportunity to express my personal gratitude for this devoted work.

Praying God's blessings on the spiritual and academic endeavors of St. Joseph's High School faculty and students in the coming years, I remain

Faithfully yours in Christ,

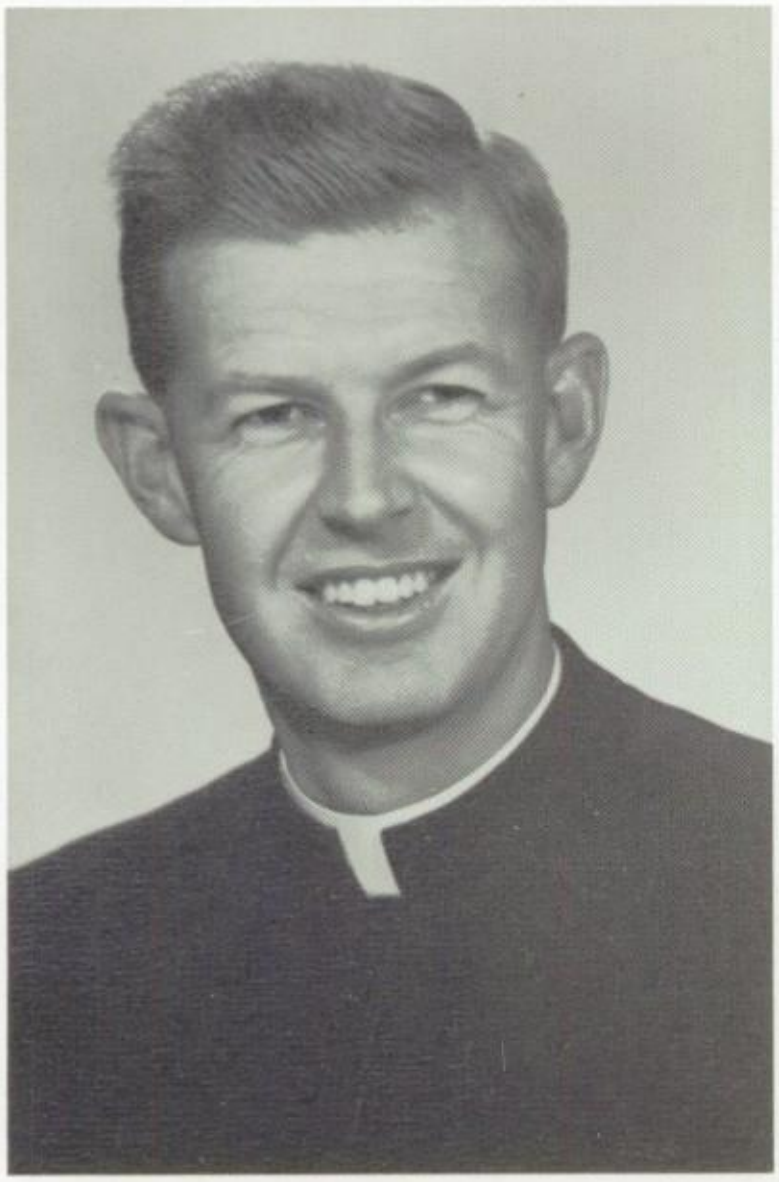
Brother Elmer Dunsky, S.M.
St. Joseph's High School
1110 Lafayette Street
Alameda, California

Dear Brother Elmer:

The observance of the St. Joseph's High School Silver Jubilee is much more than a solemn ceremony of some few hours duration. It brings into focus the vision of Father Peraght and the pioneer Brothers who opened your school during the uncertain days of the mid-Thirties. It recalls for us the devoted service of the Marianists and their lay teacher associates over a period of more than six school generations. It must certainly renew in all an appreciation of St. Joseph's intellectual riches and deep spiritual values. It is my prayer that this Jubilee celebration will bring even greater blessings upon the faculty, students, priests, parishioners, alumni and friends who have made St. Joseph's such a sturdy part of the Archdiocesan system of schools.

Cordially in Christ,

Reverend John T. Foudy
Superintendent of Schools



REVEREND FRANCIS A. QUINN, M.A.

Reverend Francis A. Quinn, M.A., Assistant Archdiocesan Superintendent of Schools, has shown a deep interest in the development of Saint Joseph High School. As director of the secondary schools in the archdiocese, he coordinates their scholastic efforts and supervises their curricula.

REVEREND ALVIN P. WAGNER

"Go, therefore, teach ye all nations . . . to observe all whatsoever I have commanded you." Taking to heart these words of the Divine Teacher, Reverend Alvin Wagner, Pastor of Saint Joseph Parish, is conscientiously developing the educational facilities of the parish. To him we are grateful.

ST. JOSEPH HIGH SCHOOL

My dear graduates,

If we may accept the word of the scientists -- and it seems we must -- lunik III has completed its orbit around the moon and is returning earthward. Soon, it is hoped, we will be receiving signals that will describe the hitherto unseen face of the moon. This is a feat of tremendous consequence and worthy of worldwide recognition.

You are entering into this world. Consciously or unconsciously, you already form an integral part of it. More and more, you will be called upon to contribute your share in shaping and controlling its further evolution.

Moreover, you are the silver anniversary class of St. Joseph High School. Twenty-five years of Catholic Marianist education have gone into the production of this year's graduate. You are a qualified American citizen; you are a Christian gentleman; you are an educated man; you are a lay apostle; you are another son of Mary, fashioned after her Firstborn, trained and fully equipped for your place in the world.

Accordingly as you fulfill your mission in the world will you be judged. It is your obligation, first of all, to discover your providential role, and then, secondly, to strive with all your talents, to fulfill it. You have every reason to be confident as you step forward into the world of hard reality. You know the infinite difference between temporal and eternal values. You know the priceless gift of the grace of God and the necessity of living always in this grace at any cost. You know, surely, your own strength and your own weakness, and you have found the true sources of strength in time of trial.

The world may judge you in different ways: your friends might acclaim you a success; those that dislike you may denounce you as a failure. What God demands of you is simply that you do His will. This means that you follow the course His providence charts for you, that you sincerely try your best in every circumstance of your life. In all things, to find the right way, you ask yourself: What is God's will? Your successes and your failures will all add up to your credit in the end, and you will accomplish your mission in life, if you see the will of God in all things.

A message as short as this, my dear graduates, is but a summary and an exhortation. Be confident in your resources; be courageous with God's grace; be persevering in love of your heavenly Mother; be true to your Alma Mater. There will be a grand reunion of all St. Joseph alumni some glorious day in heaven. See you there!

Very devotedly yours in Mary Immaculate,

Bro. Elmer Dunsky, S.M.

To recall the heroic acts of Father Chaminade, founder of the Marianists, the Chaminade Quiz Assembly, under the direction of Brother Paul Wessling and Fr. Walter Bach, brought top honors to Mike McMahon and Tom Esperance.

During March, two vocational oratorical contests were in progress, one devoted to the three categories in the Society of Mary, the other to religious and lay missionary activity in Africa and in Korea.

Varsity Basketball

Revived school spirit and teamwork combined this year to make the basketball season a success. Our Pilots scored the biggest upset of the year when, to the stunned surprise of the other members of the C.A.L., they toppled King Dragon of Bishop O'Dowd off his throne 54-49, thus making Saint Joseph one of the elite few to defeat the Dragons on their home court.

Although the loss of graduating Seniors Dave Matteri and Joe Elam is a definite setback, hopes are high regarding next year's championship race.

J. V. Baseball

A newcomer to the sport for many a year in Pilots' history is the J. V. Baseball team. Coached by Mr. Len Traves '58, this young squad is composed of seven sophomores and six freshmen. The future of the diamond at St. Joseph rests on the eagerness and determination of these men who have shown much potential for action-filled games.

Brother Charles Weiss, S. M., Athletic Director, checks with Coach Len Traves at Washington Park before game time.

NEW HORIZONS await each Saint Joseph's Pilot as he completes his period of secondary education. Twenty-five years of Marianist educational tradition, originating with two Brothers and fifty-eight students, have been a foundation well laid.

For those remaining to complete their education, New Horizons will be their constant goal, whose boundaries are only encompassed by eternity.

Under the leadership of Christ and the protection of His Blessed Mother, New Horizons will become the land familiar, the Home Eternal.
